

Message from the Headteacher

It has been a very busy couple of weeks here at All Saints! Following our superb Ofsted visit, we have also had our section 48 religious inspection. Many thanks to you all for your support with these important visits. We also had Andrew Gwynne, MP, visit All Saints to see all of the great things that are happening here. Mr Gwynne was given a tour by some of our pupils and visited most classes and our library. He was very impressed with the superb behaviour, attitude and learning that was taking place. We are now looking forward to the last week before the Easter holidays. School finishes at 3pm on Friday 7th April.

Annie comes to All Saints

Congratulations to Mrs Millington, her wonderful cast and committed back stage and front of house crew for 4 nights of pure talent in the form of All Saints' latest production, Annie!

"We think you're gonna like it here!"

With an energy that left the audiences singing well into 'Tomorrow', pupils at All Saints Catholic College really had something to sing and dance about with their take on Broadway's hit show "Annie". The cast this year was all about quality rather than quantity and was made up of only Year 7, 8 & 9 students. With just over five months practice, this year's production promised to raise the roof and did not disappoint, with showstoppers such as 'Maybe', 'Hard Knock Life' & 'Easy Street'! Thanks to everyone who helped out in any way and to the fantastic audiences who packed the hall every evening.

We are already looking forward to our next spectacular production, whatever it might be!

50/50 Draw

Well done to Mr Coogan, the latest winner of the 50/50 draw. Anyone interested in taking part (and remember, you need to be in it to win it) should contact the school office on 0161 338 2120

Linguists of the Week

Lucy Pimlott and Weronika Tejc are our fabulous linguists of the week.

The girls paired up to read the French poem about spring that we have been studying in class recently.

They both sounded very French and read with great expression and the rest of the class responded with a spontaneous round of applause. Well done girls! Test your French by reading the poem below!

Une histoire à suivre

Après tout ce blanc vient le vert,

Le printemps vient après l'hiver.

Après le grand froid le soleil,
Après la neige vient le nid,
Après le noir vient le réveil,
L'histoire n'est jamais finie.

Après tout ce blanc vient le vert,
Le printemps vient après l'hiver,
Et après la pluie le beau temps.

Accelerated Reader of the Week

Olivia Palma-Neal is currently reading the Dork Diaries series by Rachel Renée Russell. She has a wonderful attitude to reading and is making fantastic progress. Keep up the great work, Olivia!

Years 9 and 10 look to the future

On Wednesday and Thursday, 40 year 9 and 10 students travelled to the region's biggest hands-on careers and skills fair. The event, called 'Choices', included a wide range of post-16 providers offering information about opportunities available after leaving school. Our pupils travelled to Event City near the Trafford Centre and everyone got to sample activities at over 50 different interactive stalls giving them a taste of the skills and challenges they will meet in a huge range of possible career pathways. A big change this year was the increased amount of apprenticeship opportunities offered by major corporations where qualifications can be gained whilst being paid.

Our pupils were a credit to the school and used their time wisely, gaining important information about how to make progress in their chosen careers. When asked, many said they found the event very useful and commented on how the information gained on the day has helped to inform their future choices.
